What to bring: Swimsuit, comfortable clothing, hiking or tennis shoes, sandals, change of clothing, binoculars, camera, sunscreen, hat.

Children Rate Policies: Rates for children apply from 8 to 11 years.

We will begin with a scenic hike on one of the main trails, guided by one of our guides. As part of the hike, visitors will have the opportunity to swim in different parts on the crystal-clear river. At river’s edge multiple springs convert a cool stream into the soothing thermal river, with temperatures ranging from 90 to 115 degrees Fahrenheit. After a visit to the springs, an authentic culinary experience awaits you at the restaurant. You will find thermal pools with a private swim-up bar, hanging bridge, a panoramic view of the dry-forest and volcanic range. This area is covered in gigantic tombstone-like volcanic rocks that tell of a cataclysmic eruption that occurred thousands of years ago, a scene unlike anything you will see elsewhere in Costa Rica or anywhere else in the world. Under the guidance of renowned adventure designers, we have created a sequence that will please and surprise. Our inspiring Rio Blanco canyon is the main stage for the awesome cable-based adventure, which includes: 15 platforms: 6 of them are rock-based, 9 are suspended on the canyon walls, A pendulum cable, A 50ft “Tarzan swing”, A 90ft challenge bridge, 4 via ferratas* with lengths varying from 15 to over 30ft, 5 zip lines with lengths varying from 260 to over 800ft, water station in the middle of the circuit.
